

Southern Indiana Wheelmen Bicycle Club Donates to Dare to Care

Members representing the Southern Indiana Wheelmen (SIW) bicycle club donated $2,000 to Dare to Care Food Bank at a presentation on December 29, 2023 at the food pantry in the Floyd County Library in New Albany, Indiana. The money was raised earlier this year through the Harvest Homecoming Bicycle Tour (HHBT). "This was the third year we were able to donate $2,000," commented John Neichter, SIW President, "and extra special this year because of a matching funds donation it became $4,000.

This was the 45th year for the Harvest Homecoming Bicycle Tour which takes place in Lanesville, Indiana. The next HHBT will be on September 28, 2024.

Dare to Care partners with local social service agencies, such as food pantries, shelters, and emergency kitchens to distribute food to Louisville and the 12 surrounding counties in Kentucky and Southern Indiana. In the past year, Dare to Care and its partners provided 19.6 million meals to our community.

Photo caption: At the food pantry in the Floyd County Library in New Albany, Indiana are, from the left, Danielle Densford of Dare to Care, and Cindy Barranco, Barbara Thorn, Roben Rosenberger, and John Neichter of Southern Indiana Wheelmen.